Advertising media pack

INTRODUCTION

Training Ground Guru has become the go-to destination for anyone wanting to find out what happens behind the scenes in professional football.

We provide the latest insights and developments from the worlds of coaching, sport science, tech, academies and leadership.

Every month, the site attracts almost 100,000 unique users, our social media channels garner millions of impressions and our stories are regularly picked up by mainstream media.

But more than that, Training Ground Guru (or TGG for short) is the website of choice for football professionals.

Hundreds of football club staff (chief executives, managers, coaches, heads of performance etc), all eager to keep abreast of industry news and best practice, engage with the site and subscribe to our newsletter. Furthermore, top practitioners - like Tony Strudwick, Richard Evans, Brian Ashton and Tim Gabbett - have presented at our events and written articles for the site.

We have been critically acclaimed by being shortlisted for the prestigious SJA sport website of the year in 2017, alongside the Guardian, Telegraph and ESPN.

In short, TGG gets to an audience other sites cannot reach.

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

SPONSORED CONTENT

For selected partners, we produce sponsored content. This is a bespoke article, usually written by the TGG team, promoting a company or product. The article will be promoted via our social media channels and will be included in the weekly newsletter.

It is important to note that the requirements for this type of content are as stringent as they would be for a regular piece - it must be editorially strong, include original quotes (usually from a player or club) and final editorial control will rest with the TGG team.

EVENT DIARY POSTING

Inclusion in our event diary and promotion via the TGG social media channels, which reach millions of people every month.
